

Youth Voices United for Change

Annual Student Leadership Conference
De Anza College
Cupertino, Ca

Save the Date!
Friday, December 4, 2009
YVUC Conference 9am-2pm

Workshop Themes

- ⇒ Making your Own Media
- ⇒ Youth For Human Rights
- ⇒ Healthy Relationships
- ⇒ Queer Rights are Immigrant Rights
- ⇒ Theater as Social Change
- ⇒ Empowering Girls

Program:

- ⇒ Workshops
- ⇒ Motivational Speakers
- ⇒ Community Service Opportunities
- ⇒ Cultural, Hip Hop, Theater Performances

Raffles
Free Breakfast
and Lunch!
Free T-shirt
and Goodies!

Description

De Anza College's Institute of Civic and Community Engagement will be hosting the 4th annual student leadership conference known as Youth Voices United for Change. It is meant to empower, educate, and engage students to make positive changes for themselves and their communities while connecting them to existing community services.

Contact:

Jorge Morales
De Anza Outreach
408.864.5803
moralesjorge@deanza.edu

LaQuisha Beckum
Co-Coordinator
BeckumLaQuisha@DeAnza.edu

Phong Lam
Co-Coordinator
408.864.8774
LamPhong@DeAnza.edu

Mission: The Institute of Community and Civic Engagement advances education for democracy with full participation for all of our communities as its core value.
www.deanza.edu/communityengagement

Conference sponsored by: De Anza Office of the President, De Anza IMPACT AAPI, De Anza Financial Aid Office, De Anza Office of Outreach & School Relations, The City of Cupertino Parks and Recreation Department, De Anza The Institute of Community and Civic Engagement