ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

|--|---|
| DASG (De Anza Student Government) Edith Chan | DASG met on 1/18. We discussed a potential student forum to provide a space for De Anza constituents to relay questions regarding Measure G to senior staff. |
| Classified Senate Deborah Armstrong | From Cheryl: Deborah Armstrong will be out for 2 weeks. Classified Senate President Sarah Wallace has resigned from De Anza. It is disconcerting that the Classified Senate will be without a president for the second year in a row. Adriana Garcia as the President-elect, will remain in that role for the year. The Academic Senate should reach out and extend support to our classified colleagues. |
| FA (Faculty Association) Mary Donahue | (Quoting from an email I got from Student Press Law Center.) “Beware of the copyright bots! . . . I just got a bill for a Creative Commons photo we used. What gives? . . . website unlawfully posted a photo from a popular Creative |

| | Commons web site and now owes the photographer several thousand dollars. . . Unfortunately, some photographers and companies are now intentionally taking advantage by including very specific or complex licensing terms that they know most — or at least many — users probably won’t comply with. Let’s call it what is: a trap. And once a user falls into their trap, a demand letter soon follows.” https://splc.org/2022/05/charged-for-a-creative-commons-photo/ |
| Administrative Liaison Thomas Ray | Happy New Year and welcome back. |

| Curriculum Erik Woodbury | Curriculum suffered a great loss at the start of this quarter with the resignation of one of our fabulous Curriculum Technicians, Mehran Karimi. This will have an immediate impact on our work this quarter, felt first in the delay of further training for eLumen until the end of January. Subsequent to that we hope to open up eLumen to general use for faculty doing required 5-year revisions. Once we evaluate how that is proceeding, we will be able to update the campus on what other projects can be addressed this year. The Curriculum team approved and will begin updating a |
